Foreword

In these pages are pictures and accounts of the class of 1960.
They tell briefly of the life of our class family during its four unforgettable years at C. H. S.
Like many such accounts they are necessarily incomplete.
For much more than you will read of here
has shaped the memories we will cherish.
The faculty that nourished our minds in excellent manner,
the varsity teams that raised our spirits to the heights,
the Junior Prom, and then--- OUR Senior Hop.

These, and many other pursuits have bounded us together with ties that will carry through the years.
At each opening of this book, smile and relive these days of happiness.

The 1960 Class Book of Clinton High School

Clinton, Massachusetts

. . . Dedication

IT IS WITH PLEASURE THAT WE, THE CLASS OF 1960, DEDICATE

OUR MEMORABILIA TO VERNON LAVERDURE, OUR CLASS ADVISOR.

HIS COUNSEL AND SUPERVISION MADE OUR

HIGH SCHOOL CAREERS SOMETHING TO BE REMEMBERED.

WITH UNTIRING PATIENCE AND CAPABLE DIRECTION

HE GUIDED US SMOOTHLY THROUGH THE PROBLEMS

THAT HARASSED US FROM THE BEGINNING.

ALTHOUGH THIS DEDICATION IS WHOLLY INADEQUATE,

WE WISH IT TO SERVE AS A TRIBUTE

TO AN IDEAL MEMBER OF THE TEACHING PROFESSION.

SOMETIMES in the affairs of men, events occur which seem inexplicable to us.

One of these events occurred on April 24, 1959, with the untimely deaths of Paula Sorel and Sandra Poulos as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

The Lord called them home before they could make a lasting mark upon the world.

Paula Jacqueline Sorel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Sorel of 6 Harbor Street, was born in Clinton on December 20, 1942.

Sandra Theodora Poulos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Poulos of 9 Boynton Street, was born in Clinton on September 19, 1941.

They both attended the Clinton Public Schools and in 1956, entered Clinton High School with the Class of 1960.

Among our most cherished and unforgettable memories will always remain the cheerful dispositions, the blithe manner and smiling faces of Paula and Sandy.

Beside being not only extremely popular and agreeable, they had gained the admiration and respect of all who knew them.

When the hearts of these girls were stilled and silenced forever, no one was able to express the grief and emptiness which pervaded the hearts and lives of all of us. No man's earthly life, no matter how brief, is in vain, for each man has been placed upon this earth for a reason.

God must have decided Paula and Sandra had accomplished their purpose.

In Memoriam

Robert Paul Goodsell

Neither events nor the passage of time will be able to erase from our lives the memory of Robert Goodsell, prominent and well-liked member of the Class of 1960. Our hearts were saddened in our senior year by his untimely death on December 17, 1959. His genial manner and his wonderful spirits were shining facets of Bob's marvelous character.

Robert Paul Goodsell, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Goodsell of 722 Main Street, was born in Clinton on August 8, 1941. He attended St. John's School and in September 1959 came to Clinton High School from Notre Dame Academy. Here he spent his remaining high school days.

Aside from being extremely popular and agreeable, Bob was a gentleman. He possessed the warmth of personality and gentleness of demeanor which will be indelibly imprinted in the minds and hearts of all who had the good fortune to have known him.

The world's a stage; and Bob had his part. When the news of his death reached us, a grief incapable of expression pervaded the lives of all of us. Surely God must have decided that it was time to call Robert home.

In Memoriam . . .

Among the bright and sunny days of our school life there were several occasions of sorrow.

One such happening was the sudden death of Mr. Francis J. Nolan on February 11, 1958.

He was mathematics and history teacher at CHS and the President of the High School Teachers Association. He was also the Varsity baseball coach.

It is with deep respect and humility that the class of '60 acknowledges the faithful service of Francis J. Nolan as our friend and class advisor. A member of the faculty of CHS for four years, he was a model to student and athlete alike. The extent of his devotion to duty and his dignity of manner, few can equal. The Great Teacher called him home.

OUR FRESHMAN YEAR

As our four wonderful years draw to a close we pause and look back to September, 1956 when we entered the halls of CHS as confused and timid Freshmen. We marched through the corridors bravely facing the upperclassmen with their teasing and age old pranks.

Finally, after getting into the school routine we settled down and undertook election for officers, our first task as a class under the guidance of Mr. Francis Nolan, our newly appointed class advisor. We chose the following to lead our class: Francis Fitzgerald, President; Paula Sorel, Vice-President; Richard Czermak, Treasurer; and Dorothy Ryan, Secretary.

The months passed quickly with the excitement of being present at and participating in sports events, assemblies, Thanksgiving Show and Interclass Dramatics. Soon the dread date approached . . . "Mid-Years" . . . and somehow after long hours of study, we managed to struggle through the longest week of the school year.

As June rolled around we turned our backs on our first year's happy experience at CHS and looked forward to the long summer vacation and to returning next year as confident Sophomores.

OUR SOPHOMORE YEAR

September soon came, familiar faces and sights engulfed us. Instead of being pushed around, we went merrily about our business. We were no longer the inexperienced Freshmen, we were now superior to at least one class.

To guide us through our sophomore year, we elected as officers: Robert Latini, President; Claire Henighan, Vice-President; Elizabeth Valeri, Secretary; Neil Fadgen, Treasurer.

As we had already selected aur class rings, we received and ware them with justifiable pride.

Mid-years came again and althaugh still a great abstacle, we taak them in aur stride.

In February, we had the experience af aur lives "the high schaal fire!" It left us without a schaal and with a three-week vacatian, which nabady minded. During this vacatian our class advisor, Mr. Francis Nalan, passed away quite suddenly. When we again returned, it was like our first day af school, we had ta learn all aver where aur classes were to be held. We alsa came under the guidance af Mr. John McGrail, wha capably took us thraugh aur Saphamare Year.

Before we knew it, June came, and with it the realizatian that we had completed half of aur high school course.

OUR JUNIOR YEAR

Here we were halfway thraugh aur high schaal days and left withaut a class advisor because of Mr. McGrail's departure. We were lucky ta have Mr. Laverdure take us under his wing. With his wonderful guidance and assistance we elected far aur afficers: President, Edward Banin; Vice-President, Claire Henighan; Treasurer, Anthany O'Loughlin; and Secretary, Elizabeth Valeri.

The first quarter went by swiftly and at the beginning of December, Mr. Laverdure started the productian af "A Christmas Guest" which was ta be aur cantributian ta the Interclass Dramatics Shaw. Of caurse with the marvelaus actars and actresses playing their parts superbly, we won the competition — much ta the surprise af the Seniors.

The new year came in swiftly; and we faund aurselves cramming far mid-years, which to aur surprise, we breezed thraugh. After mid-years we fell back inta the same ald routine.

The biggest event af aur Juniar year was aur very awn prom. We vated an "Enchanted Island" for a theme, and the cammittees went ta wark ta produce the mast beautiful pram in the histary af CHS. When the Seniar class afficers turned aver their caps and gawns ta aur class afficers there was a tauch af sadness thraughout the hall, but this pensiveness disappeared when they annaunced the queen and her caurt.

The next thing we knew it was vacatian time ance again, and we realized that the next time we entered CHS partals, we wauld be the proud Seniars.

OUR SENIOR YEAR

Naw, in the year af '60, with grave and sad demeanar, we yearn aver happy, carefree years, we are the departing Seniars. The peak af aur faur years had arrived. We were at last warthy af the name Senior. It seemed strange that we were naw the leaders in Clintan High saciety, but we taak it in aur stride.

Almost immediately, we plunged headlong inta schaal affairs and elected as aur capable leaders: President, Dave Dunn; Vice-President, Jaan Patas; Treasurer, Dominic Pizza; Secretary, Elizabeth Valeri. Dues were paid and we began ta laak forward ta graduatian. Our annual Seniar Hap taak place in February, the theme being "A Fantasy in White" with the meladies af The Hi-Fi's.

Class meetings were held frequently, all leading up ta the climax. The phatagraphers came and went, the classbook was completed amid a flurry af activity, and the rehearsals far aur final appearance were scheduled.

Ultimately, Baccalaureate Sunday appeared and then . . . Graduatian night! Listening to the speakers and hearing our names called aut from the platfarm with sudden impact, the idea that aur high schaal days were at an end . . . then left ta us, anly memaries af a wonderful class.

TUNE—

''SUCH A DAY''

Words by Diane M. Ashjian

I

High school days, as wonderful as these were
High school days, were perfect from the start.
Warm and gay, and full of laughing hours,
High school days will live within my heart.
And always, we'll remember these forever
And forever will be,
High school days as wonderful as these were
High school days will never end for me.

II

Clinton High, your mem'ries ne'er will perish
Clinton High, as now it's time to leave.
Senior year, the year we all most cherish
Ends at last; we find hard to believe.
Remember, the parties, proms, and dances
And the banquet, — class trip,
Homework, mid years, and those young romances;
All these things will live in memory.

III

Classmates true, we leave the links that bind us
Classmates true, we bid one sad good-bye.
All too soon, our joys are left behind us,
Now at last, we leave thee with a sigh.
Remember, Class of '60 and it's motto,
Graduation, — teachers.
Best of luck, our treasured friends in '60,
Bon voyage, may God watch over you.

Edward Joseph Devault

"A little nonsense now and then, is relished by the best of men."

No introduction is necessary for "Eddie," as he is well-known and liked by all. A sport in the true sense of the word, "Eddie" has proved himself a gentleman athlete on the baseball diamond as well as in his brilliant basketball career. His work on the Octopus helped give it much of it's success this past year. At present "Eddie's" plans are undecided, but we of '60 are sure that his congeniality, among other qualities, will help him gain rapid strides to success.

And now we come to "Frannie," as she is commonly called by her many friends. She is an ardent sports fan; always ready to cheer the boys on to victory. "Frannie" is a carefree lass who certainly enjoys good humor. Needless to say she never misses a party, dance or other social function. She is often found in the center of much merry-making and her winning personality and charming manner account for the many friendships she has acquired at C. H. S. She is always ready to help out and do more than her share in any class activity. "Frannie" has kept us chuckling for the past four years with her gay witticisms and it is a pleasure to be in a class with her, for she always knows when silence is not wanted. With plans heading toward business education we, the Class of '60 with utmost sincerity, wish her the best of luck and success in her future years.

Arlene Mary Straitt

"Together we stand, divided we foll."

"Arnie," who is Christobal, Panama's gift to Clinton High, came to us in our Junior year. Her pleasant smile and charming personality soon won this petite miss a host of friends. While not too studious, she has managed to do well in her class work. "Arnie's" plans for the future are indefinite, but we feel certain that her ability will insure success in whatever field of endeavor she chooses to labor. "Arnie," the Class of '60 wishes you the best of luck in your future life.

Sandra Lee Thornbloom

"It's o friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

And now we introduce "Sandy," a girl with a pleasant manner and a personality to match. She always has a smile for everyone, and is always ready and willing to help out in any or all class activities. You'll always find her at the football and basketball games, cheering the team on to victory. She may seem shy, but no matter what she does, "Sandy" has a wonderful time and everyone with her does, too. We are sure that her wonderful sense of humor and pleasant ways will make her a success in her chosen field of teaching. The Class of '60 wishes her the best of luck and success.

Thomas Michael Tierney

"Happy am I; from care I'm free!
Why can't they all be contented like me?"

"Tom," as he is known to his friends and fellow classmates, is one of the most likeable Senior boys. His pleasant smile and carefree, jovial manner have won him many friends at C. H. S. He is an ardent sports fan and can be found at most C. H. S. sports events either as a player or a spectator. "Tom" has not yet decided what he intends to do after graduation, but the best of luck goes with him from the Class of '60.

Frank Tokarz

"Speech is great, but silence is greater."

Frank is Green Street's worthy contribution to our class. We place him among the best-natured of our group; quiet and unassuming, but always friendly. Frank has gained the respect and friendship of all his classmates through his willingness to help in any way he can. Although his plans for the future are somewhat indefinite, we are sure he will be a success in whatever field he might choose. Best of luck, Frank, from the Class of '60.

Math Club; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Baseball; Senior Hop Committee.

Lois Ann Vaghini

"Lois' humor, so natural and gay, will help to brighten many a day."

Lois is an attractive Senior miss with a sunny smile and a pleasant disposition. She is one of the carefree, happy-go-lucky members of our class. Her sparkling personality and meticulous appearance have won her a host of friends at C. H. S. Although friendliness is her specialty, you can't help feeling that mischief runs a close second. She has been a regular attendant at basketball and football games, but we are not quite sure whether it is the sport itself or some other attraction. Lois' plans for the future are indefinite, but we know with her character, capable ability and winning personality, she will excel in any career she may choose. Best of luck, Lois, from the Class of '60.

History Circle; Kappa Delta Phi; Twirler 1; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee.

Marie Alma Vaghini

"She's as kind as she is fair."

Here we have Marie, one of the quieter members of our class. She has won many friends at C. H. S. with her cheery "Hi." Loyal, dependable, hard-working, and ever-ready to lend a helping hand to our class projects, Marie is of the group that got things done — those people we can't do without. Marie's plans are indefinite as yet, but best wishes go with her from the Class of '60 in whatever she does.

Richard Carl Vaghini

"A man of few words is well spaken."

"Dick" is an easygoing, carefree member of our class. Although he is one of the more quiet and shy members, he always greets his classmates with a cheerful smile and "Hello." He doesn't busy himself to any great extent with books, but he manages to keep his marks at an average grade. He doesn't participate in any C. H. S. sports, yet he is an ardent follower of all the games. He has not revealed his ambition to us, but we know he will be a success in whatever lifework he may select. The Class of '60 wishes him the best of luck.

History Circle; Tau Sigmo.

Elizabeth Navin Valeri

"To see her is to like her; to know her is to love her."

When you first meet "Liz" she seems to be rather quiet and shy, but when you know her really well, you stop and wonder where you got that impression. For since the time "Liz" entered high school, she has proven herself a friend to everyone who knew her, and has won the hearts of students and teachers alike. Her extreme popularity may be shown by the simple fact that "Liz" has served as our class secretary for the past three years. We know that with her many wonderful qualities, her future as a teacher will be crowned with success.

John Anthony Valerio

"If ot first you don't succeed, quit while you're oheod."

Here we have "Tony," well-known for his good disposition and his ability to get along with others. He can always be counted on to lend a helping hand. His after-school hours are usually spent driving a host of girls around in his '57 Ford. Never one to burn the midnight oil, "Tony" has always managed to keep out of academic trouble. Although his future plans are indefinite, the Class of '60 wishes him the best of luck in whatever he may endeavor.

Thomas Michael Valerio

"The Acre's gift to C. H. S. A prize we're happy to passess."

"Tommy" is one of the famed Acre boys and an outstanding member of the Senior Class because of his social and class project attendance. His friendly "Hello" and heartwarming smile have made him a friend to all his classmates. Whenever necessary, "Tom" can always be counted on to lend a helping hand. "Tom's" plans for the future are as yet indefinite, but we are sure he will be a success in whatever he undertakes. The Class of '60 wishes him the best of luck in the future.

Douglas Lee Watson

"There's nothing at all that worries me."

"Doug," who hails from Berlin, is one of the quieter boys in our closs. His silent, quiet manner has earned him the title of "Closs Mystery Man." To those who know him better, "Doug" is o friendly fellow with a carefree, happy disposition. He doesn't busy himself to any great extent with books, but he manoges to keep his marks obove the danger point. Upon groduotion, "Doug" plans to enter the Air Force. The best of luck goes with you, "Doug," os the doors of C. H. S. close behind you.

History Circle; Tau Sigma; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Prom Committee.

Robert George Wetherbee

"Apparently so calm you'd never realize,
That a mischievous self deep within him lies."

"Bob" is one of the quiet members of the class. He is the type of fellow who oppears reserved and rather mysterious at first glonce, but is quite different to those who know him. "Bob," an average student, hos ployed on our footboll and baseball teams while attending C. H. S. He plans to enter the service after groduotion, and we know he will succeed in his endeavor. The best of luck goes with him from the Closs of '60. Good luck, "Bob."

Susan Cooper Windle

Always happy and always gay; we'd sure like her to stay that way."

Next, we come to Susan, a girl who never has too much to say. On the surface, she appears to be a little reserved, but to her friends and classmates she is known as a happy, carefree girl. She was an average student during her years at Clinton High School. Her favorite pastime is taking trips to Hudson. Susan's plans for the future are to attend Worcester Girls' Trade to study hairdressing. The Class of '60 wishes her the best of luck.

John Jacob Wiinikka

"But now his task is smoothly done, he can camply, or he can run."

The North End district has made a fine contribution to C. H. S. in the person of "Winnie." He is one of those carefree fellows who never worries too much about marks or studies, yet manages to make the grade. John played guard for the Galloping Gaels during his four years in high school and did very well. "Winnie" has not made any definite plans for the future, but the Class of '60 wishes him the best of luck in whatever he plans to do.

Dian Beverly Witgenstein

"Our Chicky is witty, bright, and gay; as cheerful as a summer's day.

A charming personality and a smile for everyone have contributed to make "Chicky" a popular member of the Senior Class. A lover of sports and a constant supporter of all school functions, she can be found at football and basketball games cheering our Galloping Gaels on to victory. After graduation, "Chicky" would like to become a hairdresser. The Class of '60 wishes her the best of luck in the future.

Conrad Francis Zumhagen

"Attempt to the end, and never stand no doubt,
Nothing's so hard, but search will find it out."

Last, but not least, we introduce Conrad, or "Connie," as he is more commonly known to his friends. Together with his friendly manner and good nature, he has made many friends at C. H. S. When you first see "Connie," you'd think he was quiet, but when you get to know him, your opinion changes. He was a resourceful co-editor of our school paper, The Octopus. His spare time avocation is working in the Clinton Super Market. "Connie's" plan for the future is to become an electrical engineer. We, the Class of '60, wish him the best of luck in his chosen field.

Raymond E. Gibbons

"None but himself could be his parallel."

A crew-cut, an infectious smile unsuccessfully concealed and general goodnaturedness all echo the familiar figure of "Ray." Although never loaded down with books, "Ray" always managed to keep his marks well above the passing grade. During the past two years "Ray" has done his share of work on the gridiron. Always ready to help the class, "Ray" has been a valuable classmate. His plans for the future are uncertain, but just being himself, with his personality and wit, how can he help but succeed? To "Ray" go all the best wishes from the Class of '60.

Thanksgiving Show

On November 25, 1959, one of the best shows ever put on by Clinton High School students was viewed by a large audience. Students from all four classes displayed talents well worthy of the applause they received. Outstanding among the various performances were: "The Senior Beatniks," "The Barbershop Quartette," "This Is Your Life," "Art Linkletter's Show," "Russian Bandstand," "The Cheerleaders," "The Unbearables," and our own Diane Ashjian, '60.

A well directed choir made up of freshman girls opened the show with "Smile." They also brought the show to a climax, when the whole cast gathered on stage to sing a final farewell to a show well performed.

Mr. Peter Chiarvaras, '60, served as an able Master of Ceremonies. His jokes between the acts added a bit of comedy to the show. Our gratitude and admiration go to Mr. William Gosselin, faculty member, who directed the show. His patience and understanding made the show the success it was.

Music after the show was provided by Perry Conte and his orchestra. The dance was enjoyed by all. The Thanksgiving Show of our "Senior Year" will be one of the greatest and fondest memories of our days at CHS.

. . . Last Will and Testament

To all concerned: we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty of Clinton High School, situated in the town of Clinton, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being in good health and of sound mind, do hereby announce and proclaim this, our Last Will and Testament. We very happily unload all these goodies to the following:

To Miss Bachose, we leave a statue of Minerva, Goddess of Wisdom, to inspire the Class of '61.

To Mr. Donald Burgwinkle, we leave all the problems of a graduating class.

To Mr. Joseph Burgwinkle, we leave a year's supply of golf balls.

To Mr. Burke, we leave a perpeptual pass to all the football games at Notre Dame.

To Mrs. Burke, we leave a pair of stilts for erasing the blackboard.

To Mr. Comiskey, we leave an adding machine.

To Mr. Flanagan, we leave a year's supply of Tropicana orange juice.

To Miss Gannon, we leave a lined blackboard.

To Mr. Garrity, we leave a bottle of tranquilizers for future Science Fairs.

To Mr. J. Gibbons, we leave a year's supply of pamphlets to every college.

To Miss Gibbons, we leave a percolator.

To Mr. M. Gibbons, we leave the preamble written 150 times.

To Mr. Gosselin, we leave the woes of losing his star pitcher and captain.

To Mr. Hester, we leave more physical education equipment.

To Miss Kerrigan, we leave an empty recess classroom.

To Mr. Kittredge, we leave the Senior Girls' phone numbers.

To Mr. Laverdure, we leave our gratitude for being our class advisor.

To Rev. Martin, we leave track for his model railroad.

To Miss McIntyre, we leave a beatnik dictionary.

To Mr. McKenzie, we leave a 155 howitzer to add to his gun collection.

To Mr. McNamara, we leave the happy memories of the best English students to leave CHS.

To Mr. Murphy, we leave a gold-plated chalk holder.

To Mr. O'Brien, we leave the raw materials to build the coming State Class C Football Champs.

To Mr. O'Toole, we leave our history notes.

To Mr. Philbin, we leave a year's supply of coffee, delivered at 7:55 A.M.

To Miss Praderio, we leave her a new language laboratory.

To Dr. Sciarrone, we leave a helicopter to commute from Barre to CHS.

To Mrs. Seegel, we leave a pure "unrhetorical" question.

To Miss Thompson, we leave a new spoon to replace the one used by the Physics Class.

To Mr. Vallario, we leave his Senior Homeroom unmatched.

To Mr. Young, we leave a well-mannered class of singers.

David Ahearn leaves the CHS basketball team minus a terrific co-captain.

Joan Ambrosi leaves her prettiness to be enjoyed.

Diane Ashjian leaves her beautiful voice.

Enchanted Island . . .

QUEEN
Miss Claire Henighan

On June 5, 1959, the Fallon Memorial Auditorium was converted from a mere hall into a replica of a South Sea island. From the moment the one hundred and twenty-five couples entered the Class of '60's endeavor, they were swept into the atmosphere of heaven-scented flowers. The stage which held the orchestra of Bob Adams, was beautifully decorated with scenery of palm trees and sky-blue waters. One of the outstanding spectacles ever seen at CHS was the sparkling, colorful fountain which cast rays of liveliness on the flowers and plants located around the front of the hall. The balcony was gaily decorated with live vines and delicate roses. Pure white bird cages with colorful canaries were suspended from the balcony. The tables were covered with crepe paper and flowers and fresh pineapples, which were removed by the couples as souvenirs of the eventful evening. A majestic crystal ball climaxed the superb decorations successfully planned by the talented committee.

At 10:30 P.M. the Grand March, capably led by Mr. Robert A. Murphy, was conducted. Following an old-tradition, the tearful Senior Class officers relinquished their caps and gowns to the officers of the Class of '60. After moments of anticipation, the announcement was made and Miss Claire Henighan was crowned Queen of the Enchanted Island. Her attendants: Ann Thompson, '59, Roberta Duvarney, '60, Ann Mill, '60, Patricia Notaro, '60, Phyllis Battisti, '60 and Carol Jakubowicz, '61 stood beautifully on the steps leading to the throne.

As the crowd quietly parted and the hall stood once again silent after a stimulating evening, it seemed to want to express congratulations to the Class of '60, its able advisor, Mr. Vernon Laverdure, its Class officers and co-operative members for making this prom the most successful and beautiful one ever seen in the history of CHS. It will indeed linger in our memories as one of the fondest events of our high school career.

Fantasy in White . . .

On the night of February 26, 1960, the Class of '60 presented their Senior Hop at the Fallon Memorial Auditorium. The hall was cleverly transformed into a gala winter wonderland which carried out the theme "Fantasy In White." The couples entered under an archway gaily decorated with silver and gold pine cones and they walked down a path lined with snow-laden fir trees. A multi-shaded blue sky enhanced with glistening stars of all shapes and sizes added much to the attractiveness of the hall. A huge red sleigh and fir trees decorated the front of the hall and the couples danced happily around a large snowman complete with top hat. Matching snowmen on the tables were carried away as momentos of a happy evening.

The evening came to a climax at 11:30 when Mr. Laverdure conducted the Grand March, which was led by the officers of the Class of '60. During the march the judges picked seven girls and the dancers eagerly awaited the judges' decision for a queen. Finally the choice was made and Miss Dian Witgenstein was crowned "Queen of the Senior Hop." Her court consisted of the Misses Ann Mill, Maxine Hoppie, Alice Henighan, Pauline Veinot, Gitty VanDerhook, and Jean McMahon.

I'm sure all the Seniors will fondly remember this enjoyable evening as one of the highlights of their high school career.

FRESHMAN . . .

Here we were, shy freshmen, in our first Interclass Dramatics show. We were good, but inexperience proved to be better and the Seniors were successful in winning the competition.

"WHERE'S THAT REPORT CARD?"
Cast

Father ..... James Kowalczyk
Mother ..... Diane Ashjian
Helen ..... Elizabeth Valeri
Mary ..... Ann Mill
Junior ..... Richard Rymsza
Alice ..... Kathleen Kerrigan

A comedy about a boy named Junior, who is spoiling dates of his teenage sisters. The girls are all set for dates, but, because everyone is of the opinion that Junior has hidden the report cards, Mom and Dad won't let the girls keep their dates. A search for the cards causes a humorous situation.

SOPHOMORE . . .

Our Sophomore try proved that we were really becoming quite professional. Although the Seniors won and kept the tradition, we proved to be strong competitors and became determined to win the next year.

"HOME TO MOTHER"
Cast

John Wingate ..... Richard Rymsza
Betty Wingate ..... Diane Ashjian
Nancy Wingate ..... Elizabeth Valeri
Grace Wingate ..... Susan Mason
Mr. Billings ..... David "Whitey" Dunn
Hallie ..... Alice Henighan

One of the best comedies ever put on by students at CHS, "Home to Mother" tells of the consequences resulting when John Wingate forgets to get his wife a birthday present. She leaves to go home to her mother and John's boss is coming to meet her. After many embarrassing incidents all is well and Betty (John's wife) is home. As the curtain descended we knew that the play was enjoyed by all when we heard the tremendous applause.

. . . JUNIOR

What happiness we felt when our Juniar play wos a triumph. The desire we had in aur hearts was fulfilled when, ta aur surprise, we brake the tradition and surpassed the Seniars. This victary inspired us and naw the passibility af winning twa years in a raw enabled us ta do or die our Seniar yeor.

"THE CHRISTMAS GUEST"

Cost

Michael O'Hara, Neil Fadgen; Maira, Diane Ashjian; Father Lynch, James Dubovick; Mrs. Mulcahy, Claire Henighan; Mrs. O'Taale, Alice Henighan; Lady Carbery, Pauline Veinat; Peter, David "Whitey" Dunn; Tam Kenna, Anthany O'Laughlin, The Christmas Guest, Peter Chiavaras.

Michael O'Haro is a dear old Irishman who, in his humble way, utters wards warthy af o poet or a scholar. He lives with his blind daughter, Maira, in abject paverty — paverty sa far as material things are cancerned. But theirs is a tremendaus wealth — their lave is a deep and lasting ane; their unselfishness, unmatched; and their jay fram living, unending. Each Christmas Eve, Michael seeks ane less fortunate than himself with wham to share his meagre fare, much against the wishes af the neighbars, wha fear for his safety in bringing such "riff-raff" inta his home. On this particular Christmas Eve the Guest is a gentle, kindly man. He is tauched by the haspitality that is shawn him. When Maira and Michael are upset over the slight fare they have ta affer their Guest, He arises, tauches Mairo's eyes and, os He makes His exit, her sight returns.

. . . SENIOR

Naw it was time far us to leave a lasting mark an CHS. Win, we must. Confidence lay within our minds as we put on aur finol perfarmance in Interclass Dramatics for Clintan High. Anxiety was in our hearts as we waited far the winners to be announced. Saan, "The Seniors! The Seniors!" was echaing thraughaut the hall, and we knew aur gaal had been reached.

"THE LOTTERY"

Cast

Tessie Hutchinsan, Diane Ashjian; Bill Hutchinsan, Anthany "Tany" O'Loughlin; Old Man Warner, Peter O'Taale; Miss Bessam, Alice Henighan; Mrs. Watsan, Patricia Janes; Mrs. Dunbar, Susan Masan; Jae Summers, James Dubavick; Belva Summers, Claire Henighan; Martin, Conrad "Cannie" Zumhagen; Delacraix, Robert Latini; Jack Wilkins, David "Whitey" Dunn; Narbert, Paul McDanald; Villagers, Marie Vaghini, Thamas Cucchi, Judith Prinas, Sandra Tharnblaam, Barbara "Bannie" Calamba, Andrea "Cookie" Jahnsan, Elizabeth "Beth" Gaadale, Kathleen Kerrigan, Joanne Dintina.

"The Lottery", a dramatic, suspensive play with a shocking climax, pointed aut ta us that we shauld discard traditians that may have became evil with the passage af years.

Withaut the superb guidance af Mr. Laverdure and aur ather class advisars, and the zeal af our actresses and actars, prampters, make-up man, stage men, and many athers, we cauld never have dane so well in Interclass Dramatics.

The Gaels, under the leadership of coaches John Hester and Guy Barassi, set sail again on a new season, assisted by James Peete, Freshman Coach.

This was by far a year of experience . . . for the freshmen and sophomores, valuable training for the years to come. For the juniors a great deal of knowledge that will help them in their last year. Finally for the seniors it was a year of learning . . . the lesson . . . "You can't win them all."

The first game was, as always, against St. Peter's High. The game looked promising and our hopes were high. As in all games, the boys were trying to lose the feeling of butterflies playing tag in their stomachs. We lost the toss, so we kicked to St. Peter's. Hard running, and good blocking were responsible for two touchdowns, along with the extra points, putting Clinton ahead by a score of 16 to 0 at the half. The second half underway, it seemed, St. Peter's had found a whole new team. They managed to score three times during the last half. The game ended as a real 'heartbreaker' with the score 20 to 16 in favor of St. Peter's.

The remainder of the season was not any brighter for the Clinton players or fans; the team lost all the remaining games. This does not mean that the fellows didn't try, on the contrary, the boys played their hearts out every game. In some instances they made costly mistakes and at other times the opposition was too powerful.

So, as we leave the 59-60 season with the sight of the setting sun behind the trees, seen from the practice field, we hear, resounding from the hills, the eternal cry . . . "Wie Gehts . . . Wie Gehts!"

With the close of the football season, Coach Gosselin issued a call for candidates for the CHS basketball squad. After a few weeks of practice, he had the task of choosing his starting players for the opening game.

The 1960 Gaels proved that we weren't the champs in scoring, but our "never say die" spirit in sportsmanship won the hearts of all.

Due to the ever-ready scoring of Jim McLaughlin, Dave Ahearn, Mike McNally, and Harold Scheid and the constant guarding of Eddie Bonin, Eddie Devault, Dom Pizza, and Dick Rymsza, we made our competitors realize that they had been in a ball game. In addition, juniors Bernie Walsh, Jackie Joyce, and Bob Gilson, although used sparingly, show good potential which should be of considerable help to next year's team.

Although winning only two of our games, we were certainly proud of our eight senior members who showed tremendous skill and sportsmanship throughout the season.

BASEBALL

Captain Ed Bonin
and Coach William Gosselin

As we go to press, the "Gaels" have just completed their 1960 baseball season. This year's team has compiled a record of seven wins and nine losses. The team displayed tremendous hustle and spirit in every game throughout the year, which gained good comment from other teams and coaches in the Central Massachusetts Conference, despite what the record may indicate.

This year Coach Gosselin rotated his pitching around a staff composed of righthanders Captain Ed Bonin and Joe Dintino and southpaws Billy Gilmore and Ralph Ricci. In the outfield, Joe Ciesluk, Bob Wetherbee, and Dick Rymsza did a fine job with Danny O'Connell in reserve. The starting infield had Fred Schmike at first base, George Boyce at second base, Paul Cherubini at shortstop and Tony O'Loughlin at third base with Vic Kinosian and Larry Coppenrath in reserve. The catching was capably handled by Jack Wattu and Terry Kraft.

Since the greater part of the squad were sophomores and juniors it is expected that next year's team will make a strong bid for the Central Massachusetts Conference Title.

"They said it couldn't be done, but Clinton High did it." This year we had a track team smaller than the one which represented the school in 1959.

With an average of six members at each of the three meets the team could not be expected to make as good a showing as would have been possible with a larger group.

The addition of four new members to the team should make an improvement, and who knows what will happen in the remaining three meets.

Co-Captains Dave Dunn and Neil Fadgen have done a good job, along with Paul Nichols, Dave Gavin, Walter Gleisburg, Paul Johnson and late additions Bill McGrail, Mike Bender, Paul Ciavola, and Mike Hazel.

While enjoying the competition we faced, we look forward to the time when CHS will have the facilities to enable us to compete on more equal terms.
